

The other day, an old checkout slip fell from a library book I was reading and I realized it hadn't been borrowed in six years. How many books in the library go lonely and unread?

The library slip got me thinking about store receipts, and then the long coupons that are so often printed at the bottom. What if this format were used to promote the use of existing resources—and to find friends for lonely books?

- * As I came to the edge of the woods,
* Thrush music-hark!
- * Now if it was dusk outside,
* Inside it was dark.
- * Too dark in the woods for a bird
* By sleight of wing
* To better its perch for the night,
* Though it still could sing.
- * Far in the pillared dark
* Thrush music went—
* Almost like a call to come in
* To the dark and lament.
- * But no, I was out for stars;
* I would not come in.
* I meant not even if asked;
* And I hadn't been.

TITLE Napoleon
AUTHORS NAME Bowle, John
CALL NUMBER DC203 B83
LAST CHECKED OUT May 1978

DESCRIPTION:

This authoritative biography focuses on the evolution of Napoleon as a leader and debunks many of the myths that are often repeated about him. John Bowle sheds light on Napoleon's darker side to reveal a ruthless, manipulative, driven man whose character has been disguised by the public image he carefully fashioned to suit the purposes of his ambition.
